OLYMPIC BASKETBALLER, RACHAEL SPORN SWAPS SNEAKERS FOR DANCE SHOES!

Can Rachael Sporn really dance? Can she learn it all in just 24 hours? It can be done! All of Adelaide is talking about the Adelaide Theatre Guide's theatrical extravaganza, the 24 Hour Show.

Joining Rachael in the dance line-up is Adelaide Channel 10 personality, Jane Reilly who will be participating with the rest of her Triple M New Zoo Breakfast team, John Blackman, Scott McBain and Cosi. They will dance, sing and act... or at least try!

It's all for a good cause, with proceeds from the event going to the McGuinness McDermott Foundation to assist in their goal of improving all areas of Oncology treatment facilities for children in South Australia.

Once the full length musical is revealed, everyone has just 24 hours to produce it including casting, costumes, sets, lighting, sound, music, rehearsals and more, ready for an audience eager to see the potential train-wreck.

Olympic basketballer, Rachael Sporn says:

"I used to be quite shy when I was young and getting up on stage would have been out of the question, but the McGuinness McDermott Foundation is such a great charity, it is worth the risk..."

Producer, Hayley Horton says:

"We are delighted that Rachael and the Triple M New Zoo team are participating in the mayhem and admire them for putting not only their talent on the line, but their sanity too!"

"This is the ultimate adrenaline rush for performers, crew, orchestra and audiences alike."

All of Adelaide is encouraged to witness the challenges that Adelaide's local talent can overcome and the hilarious ways a production can be produced under pressure.
