LINDI JANE VENTRILOQUIST – SNAPS KAKADU CLUB

Puppet Palace Projects

Puppet Palace, Garden of Unearthly Delights

Until 9 Mar 2008

Review by Fran Edwards

This exceptional ventriloquist holds the attention of her young audience with ease. They relate to her colourful characters and the fun of audience participation. Snaps the crocodile, the character around which the club is built, is a cheeky, bright and breezy persona. Along with his friends the wombat, with a lost voice, and the dog, who is cool, he keeps the show rolling.

Lindi Jane knows how to appeal to her young fans and has them volunteering to act as trees and perform magic tricks for her. They happily clap and sing along.

This show is fun for all ages and is well worth a visit.
